ADJOURN

⁺⁺All OMIC-sponsored risk management activities (live seminar, audio recording, online course) enable policyholders to obtain a 5% or 10% premium discount, which is applied upon renewal. Only one risk management credit is applied per policy year. Subject to discretion of OMIC, credit for a second event attended in the same policy year may be applied for the following policy year.

Potential policy discount: Participation in this loss prevention seminar may qualify ProAssurance physicians for a premium credit if they attend the full two-hour program and complete the activity evaluation and credit attestation survey. Contact your ProAssurance agent or business development manager to see if you qualify. Premium credits are subject to approval by the state insurance department and are applied at policy renewal.
